Kentucky Woman Makes Record.

"Frightened? I'm going up again
just as soon as I can," declared Mrs.
May C. Hamilton, of Mt. Sterling, Ky., as she stepped from the car of the balloon in which she had ascended 12-400 feet through a heavy snowstorm at North Adams, Mass., the highest altitude yet reached by any woman in the East.

"I'm going up again just to beat my own record," she said.

Mrs. Hamilton is the dashing young wife of J. C. Hamilton and daughter of H. M. Woodford, both of Mt. Sterling.
She will make another ascension
at Mt. Adams next week.

She was a member of a party consisting of A. H. Morgan and J. H. Wade, Jr., of Cleveland, and made the trip to christen the big balloon. She declares that upon her return to her home she and her husband will attempt to form an aéro club there.

President Taft could not sign the Aldrich-people who elected him. Mr. Clark said that Mr. Taft in his speeches promised tariff revision downward and that it was now evident that the bill could not on the average reduce

A Peculiar Defense.

A peculiar defense was made by a negro charged with crime in a trial in an Associated Press dispatch from St. Louis
as follows: "To what source do you attribute your mental condition?" "Super-education. I'm a negro and have no business with a college education." This question and answer propounded and replied to by Louis O.
Graves, a graduate of Yale, was the climax of what Judge Taylor of the court of criminal correction today declared was the most unique defense he had ever encountered. Graves was charged with forging a check. He acted as his own attorney, called himself to the stand and conducted his own examination. After testifying that he had served terms in the penitentiaries of Jefferson City, Mo., and Chester, Ill., and that he had been an inmate of five insane asylums, he asked himself,
"Did you ever try to commit suicide?"
"Five times," was the response to himself.
"I jumped from the third tier of cells and cracked my skull. I took poison in Central police station. I tried to hang myself in the penitentiary and twice I tried to kill myself
when I felt a desire to commit crime coming over me." Graves said that he had no recollection of the forgery with which he is now charged and was remanded to jail to await possible action by the grand jury.

It is probable that a solemn rite performed the other day at Austin, Tex., escaped the eyes of most Americans. There are some ceremonies that all should see or note, and this was one of them.

An automobile containing several armed men and a bulging coffee sack drew up in front of the office of the State Treasurer. The bag was carried into the building and opened. Its contents were counted, a receipt was written and delivered and certain entries were made upon the cashiers books. The fine of $1,808,000 recently inflicted upon the Waters Pierce Oil Company by the State courts and fully sustained by the supreme court of the United States had been paid.

Fines larger than this has been assessed, but they have not been collected. When Texas prescribed the penalty which it deemed just for the violation of its anti-trust laws most people probably thought that there would be some escape for the offender. Our sceptics and cynics should not fail mentally to digest the fact that this colossal fine, the largest ever paid in the country was adjusted by the monopoly, just as accounts are settled by poor men in the police court, with cash.

As an example of exact justice this proceeding was and must continue to be very impressive. It possessed much interest also as a financial transaction.

No bank and no group of banks in the vicinity could furnish the currency needed, and arrangements had to be made at the nearest Sub-Treasury. Stage money and promissory notes would not answer the purpose. The fine was paid in bills of large denominations.

Works of art cannot clearly show the methods by which monopoly filches millions from the pockets of the people, but a painting setting forth the scene when this princely restitution was made would be worth a place among the treasurers of the Republic.

Daylight in a Corner.

Laws against the cornering of food are not as effective as they should be, but publicity is a force with which the most daring operator must reckon. With vigilance on the part of the press and government, corners based upon artificial conditions cannot be successful. It has happened that practically all attempts to monopolize food in this country have been made at times when there was no real scarcity and when all that was needed to defeat the movement was publicity.

Partly through panic and partly through greed, bakers everywhere a week ago were announcing an increase of price for bread. Today they are not sure that such action will be necessary. Discussion of this question by the press fixed public attention upon the wheat gamble. Ocen newspaper's protest was followed by another. The pulpit was heard from. Statisticians, public and private contributed reassuring figures to supply. The Secretary of Agriculture officially denounced the speculation as unwarranted.

A week ago, with prices rising daily, the chief manipulator was proclaiming the near approach of famine. Middlemen in alarm were preparing, as is usually the case, to visit the affliction first upon the poor. Today the manipulator, shrinking personally and commercially from the publicity for which he has no relish, is a nervous wreck, far from the market, prices have fallen and the middlemen are taking second thought.

Another Pension List.

(From Collier)

In the important countries of Europe it is now a recognized function of the State to meet a certain kind of expenditure quite unfamiliar on this side of the water. Each of the leading governments over there pays out large sums of money every year to members of the laboring class. Sometimes the laboring people contribute, sometimes their employers, the amount being settled by the State. This insurance is against old age, unemployment, sickness, or accidents, and it may take the form of annuity or a single sum. In some countries it is compulsory, in others voluntary. England's Chancellor of the Exchequer must raise about $43,000,000 this year for the purposes, and the Finance Ministry of France is confronted with the probability of having to produce $33,000,000. How soon will State insurance be discussed as a national question of the day in the United States? Viewing the size of our population, our wage scale, our standard of living, and our fashions of lavish liberality, we are likely to find this proposal meaning here as much as our other pension list of $150,000,000. The most promising barrier against it is the Massachusetts system of savings bank insurance, and it is a deep satisfaction, therefore, to find that system becoming more successfully established every month.

"A Nation of Perjurers."

Opponents of an income tax, from Senator Aldrich down, are ringing the changes on Gladstone's remark that it made "a nation of perjurers." They are not in the least concerned about the perjury that results from a protective tariff.

Treasury officials are collecting evidence to show that the Government has been swindled out of $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 a year through the smuggling of foreign dress goods into this country. Within the last three months gowns worth tens of thousands of dollars have been confiscated by the New York custom authorities. But this, of course, is a trifling matter compared with the great governmental duty of safeguarding our millionaires against the temptation to commit perjury by swearing off part of their income taxes.

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultant, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley, of the Univ. of Mich.; Prof. Bennett, of the Univ. of Cal.; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Souder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others, equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable. A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Eats Diamonds With Peanuts.

In an effort to locate a diamond ring, valued at $450, which an elephant had swallowed while being fed peanuts by its owner, W. W. Gentry, three expert X-ray operators and our elephant trainers worked a whole day photographing by the X-ray process the entire interior of the elephant. It is the first time in the history of the science that X-ray photographs have ever been made of an elephant. In making the pictures the largest X-ray apparatus ever made was used, and the manufacturer himself, J. R. Kelley, of the Kelley-Koett Company, of Covington, Ky., superintended the operation.

The sides of the elephant was marked off into sections and numbered. A diagram was also made with corresponding numbers, and this will serve to locate the exact spot in which the missing ring is lodged. No thief or criminal ever objected more strenuously to being "mugged" for the rogues gallery than did this elephant when the attempt was made to make the X-ray photographs. At first it was necessary to allow the elephant to become accustomed to the cracking of the X-ray tube, which took nearly an hour. Then when she was induced to lie down upon the plate holder containing the sensitive X-ray plate, and the creek's tube as held over the first section, she became frightened at the glare in the tube and again nearly an hour was spent in getting her accustomed to the glare. At last the elephant was convinced that the men were not trying to do her harm and she remained comparatively quiet while several plates were exposed. Then an accident happened. The elephant received a shock from one of the wires leading to the tube. With an ear piercing trumpet, she leaped to her feet and only the quickest movements on the part of the operators saved the valuable machinery from wreckage. She was quieted with a liberal portion of hay and about three pounds of sugar.
After being led around awhile she was blindfolded and gave no further trouble. She lay down and arose at the command whenever it became necessary to change the plates. The Gentry show will exhibit in this city on this Saturday, May 8.

STOCK, CROP AND FARM NOTES.

—Ashby Leer, of Millersburg, sold 36 hogs at six cents per pound to Dick Turley, of Headquarters.

—Several first class suckling mules have been sold at good prices recently at Winchester. George Ballard bought one at $100 and another at $107.50,
and W. E. Pinnell sold one for $110.

—J. L. Nichols & Sons of Woodburn,

$2,000.

—Boyle county farmers will cultivate recrod breaking crops of hemp and tobacco. M. J. Farris, of that county, will plant 100 acres in hemp. There will also be a number of other large crops.

price that equals the price of a good grade of flour a few years ago. Here's another argument in favor of a big corn crop this year.—Mt. Olivet Tri-

—W. G. McClintock shipped ten carloads of hogs to the Cincinnati market
last week that cost from 6 to 6½ cents.
He also sold to D. L. Renaker, a five-year-old driving mare for $170, and one to H. N. Rankin for $200.

—The people of the United States
consume nearly 400,000 tons of beet sugar every year. This, however, is but a drop in the bucket of the total amount of sugar we eat, as we import from Europe about 3,000,000 tons
more every year.

—The Georgia peach crop is safe, according to State Commissioner of Agriculture, Hudson. There were only very light frosts in Georgia last month,
and it is believed that the peach crop
will be as early as that of last season
and fully as heavy.

—James T. Blewett, of Woodburn,
Warren county, Friday sold to John Russell, of Gallatin, Tenn., a pair of mules for $700 which is the highest price received for this kind of live stock in that section of the State.
The mules are four years old, sixteen hands high and perfectly matched.

—The largest land deal that has been consummated in Hardin county for several years was closed Wednesday of last week. When W. T. McGill sold his farm near Sonora for $16,520. The purchaser were J. M. Cox, of Glasgow
union and Altschuler, Lazarus & Co., of Horse Cave. The farm contains 413 acres. Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold Saturday for Master Commissioner
Mann, 77½ acres of land, near Millersburg, belonging to Savage heirs, to O.
R. Ranpin, for $6,000.

EBZEMA CURABLE? PROVEN.

Attorney of Moline, Ill., Convinced by Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

There is nothing that will convince a lawyer except evidence.

Now, here is some rather startling evidence of a simple home cure for eczema which convinced one lawyer,
F. C. Entriiken, attorney at Moline, Ill. He tells how oil of Wintergreen compound mixed with thymol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription, cured him in thirty days after thirty-
two years of suffering.

"For thirty-two years," writes Attorney Entriiken, "I was troubled with eczema, scabs all over my face, body and head. I could run a hairbrush over my body and the floor would be covered with scales enough to fill a basket.
I tried everything—salves, internal medicine, X-ray—all without result."
"Just a month ago I was induced to try D. D. D. Prescription. The itch was relieved instantly; so I continued.
It is just a month now and I am completely cured. I have not a particle of itch and the scales have dropped off."

"I can only say again 'cure discovered.' I am now starting all eczema sufferers on the right track."

"Cure after cure has been brought to our attention and always that instant relief from the awful itch."

EGYPTIAN BARON

Is a black horse 15.2. A grand individual and one of the best representatives of the great Baron Wilkes, now known as the Futurity family. He is one of the fastest best headed horses in Kentucky, and has been a mile over my three-quarter track, which is at least three seconds slower than Lexington, in 2:09¼, last half in 1:03¼, last quarter in :30¼. Although a pacer, he was a natural and fast trotter, and could trot in 2:40 at 2 years old. Was raced a little last season for education, and proved himself a game, level headed race horse, and if he stays right, we predict a record of 2:05 or better this year. He has served a few mares, and his colts are good individuals and fast. Egyptian Baron will serve a few approved mares at $25 to insure a Living Foal.

Care taken, but no responsibility assumed for accidents or escapes.
Money due in all cases if mare changes hands or is parted with. Mares kept on grass at $1 per week.

The Self-Educated Woman.

One of the first things she must learn is not to attempt to do too much herself. Every business man knows that the higher he rises the greater must be the number of assistants. The private soldier attends to his own affairs himself, but the captain employs an orderly, and the general has an entire staff to do his bidding. Many women have not learned this lesson. They are so anxious to do their duty in all respects that they try to perform the tasks of general and private soldier at the same time—a thing manifestly impossible.—Harper's Bazar.

Brutal Siberian Tribes.

A party of prospectors just returned from Anadir, Siberia, relates some gruesome tales of the habits of the natives in that section relative to the manner in which they dispose of their aged and infirm. During the stay of the party three men and one woman were done to death by their nearest relatives, and their bodies were laid on the tundra for the ravens to clean up.

A Shield of Soap.

The Will and Its Application.

An individual's will is like a big piece of strong machinery; the intellect must direct its workings. The biggest muttonhead on earth can have a strong will; the real strength is in knowing how to use it. All of life's experience goes to teach us that very few arguments, quarrels or distressing situations are worth a fight. Instead of following an impulse to gain revenge, it is always more satisfactory and decent to back up and forget.

Wanted to Spare It Pain.

Dorothy had been staying with her grandfather, and heard much talk about it being kinder to shoot a very old carriage horse that was long past work than to sell it. When she went home one day she heard her parents talking of selling their present motor car and buying a new one. "Oh, mamma," she exclaimed, "do have it shot, instead!"—Home Chat.

Six Painters Fall.

Six painters engaged in washing the fresco ceiling in the big lodge room of the Elk's Club, in Lexington yesterday morning, fell from a twenty foot scaffold and at least two of them are in a serious condition at St. Joseph Hospital.

The painters were Harry Whittaker, Thomas Hargrave, Jesse Watson, Henry Schnagel, Thomas Biggers and L. S. Austin. The men were in charge of foreman Thomas Biggers and were employed by C. D. Cunningham.

Conflict Averted.

A conflict between the State and Federal authorities was averted at Frankfort Friday only because it was found out by the federal authorities that it was not necessary to carry Daniel McMath, of Brooksville, who is now in the penitentiary, to Cincinnati to testify in the "bucket shop" cases, which are on trial in the Federal Court in that city. Miss Morgan came to us last October, a stranger, and in the little while she was allowed to remain here, she made many friends. She continued to grow worse until the final summons came on Thursday.

—The heavy rains of Thursday night started Hinkston and its tributaries on another boom, which was completed by the heavier rains of Friday. It was apparent by Friday night that the flood tide would be reached, the rise continued until noon Saturday, when Hinkston was one foot lower than the flood of February, while Brushy Fork was six inches higher early Saturday morning. Mr. Biggs and family residing in the property of Mr. G. W. Johnson, on Main street, near the bridge, moved out, though the water did not get in the house. All rural mail carriers were cut off, as was all travel South of town, except pedestrians who walked the railroad. Early Saturday morning a heavy wind began blowing which lasted through the day and made the flood more disastrous. Considerable damage was done to small bridges, watergates and fences.

—Our community was visited Thursday night with one of the severest wind storms in the knowledge of the oldest inhabitants. A brisk gale set up Thursday morning, which grew in velocity as the day progressed the storm center being reached about 11:45 Thursday night. A number of trees were blown down in the country also one in the M. F. C. yard; window sash was blown from the residence of Mrs. Belle Taylor, and a glass smashed in the home of Mr. M. F. Collier, a portion of the fence around the coal yard of Mr. S. D. Dodson was laid flat. A barn on the farm of the Best estate occupied by Mr. Mason was entirely demolished. Barns of Mr. Henry Patterson, James R. Long and Wm. Wright, and the residence of Mr. John Thorne were partly unroofed. The storm continued in its severity for an hour, and was followed by a heavy fall of rain, which washed the ground tady, doing much damage to growing crops and gardens.

BLUEGRASS LEAGUE RESULTS.

Shelbyville	5
Lexington	15
Paris	5
Winchester	15
Frankfort

The Paris League Park presents a busy scene since the flood, the management having scores of hands at work getting the grounds ready for the opening League game here on Thursday afternoon with the Richmond club. The elaborate program that was arranged for Friday last and which could not be carried out on account of the terrible storm and high water, that covered the ball grounds, will be carried out to the letter on Thursday next when the grounds will be in fact better than at first. There will be a parade and band concert Thursday and a half holiday given by the merchants so that everybody may attend the game and give the Paris Club a boost. The weather has caused the club a great loss financially and the people generally desire to help them out of the hole. There will be at least two hundred visitors here from Cynthiana on a special train, a larger number from Millersburg, Lexington and Carlisle. There will no doubt be the largest crowd present Thursday that was ever seen on a baseball park in this section.

The Richmond club is a strong one and you may expect to see a game that will equal professionals. The game will be called promptly at 3:30, the time for all week games, the Sunday games will be called at 3 o'clock.

The baseball club left yesterday morning for three games at Richmond Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday at Paris with Richmond and at Lexington Friday. They return here for games with Richmond on Saturday and Sunday.

The terrific rain storm Thursday night flooded the baseball grounds at Frankfort. Five feet of water covering the whole of it.

Lexington won from Winchester Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. On Sunday the Winchester club returned the compliment by shutting Lexington out with a score of 4 to 0.

The protest filed by the manager of the Paris club in regard to the decision of Umpire Donahy in the Paris-Winchester game was withdrawn. It won't pay any club to get the umpires dead against them. They are like players, make errors at times.

The trouble in regard to whether or not the Paris team was to retain the crack short stop Barnett and center fielder Ochs was settled at the meeting of the Blue Grass League magnates at Lexington Saturday. They belong to Paris for good.

Infielder Bell was released by the Paris manager Saturday, and has returned to his home at Baltimore.

Catcher Felix who has been with the Frankfort team goes to Richmond today to catch or play first base for the Paris team.

Paris yesterday signed catcher Grod-fellow, of Cincinnati, a crackerjack catcher and hitter. He will report in Richmond today.

Bardo, first baseman for Avondale, Cincinnati, will report in Paris Thursday and play first base. He is a brother of our crack second baseman, about twice as large and a hard hitter.

Catcher Weston, of the Harrison, O., team, said to be the best catcher and hitter anywhere around Cincinnati is under consideration by the local management, and will probably be here for the opening game Thursday.

A terrible collision between Manager Elgin and first baseman Parrish at Richmond yesterday in the first inning sent both of the players to the Richmond Hospital, and cast a gloom over the rest of the team. A long foul fly was knocked back of the home plate, catcher Elgin and first baseman Parrish both started with a rush after the ball. Not seeing each other they came together with a crash, the ball dropping between them. Parrish suffered a broken nose and a fractured skull above the right eye. Elgin sustained a three inch gash on forehead and skin knocked off of one cheek. After being taken to the hospital Elgin soon revived and will be able to see the game today. Not so with Parrish, who will not be able to get out for several months, if then, as he is thought to be seriously hurt.

Since hearing the sad misfortune the executive committee of the club have been busy securing the best of talent to take the places of the injured men. The public must bear with them in the next two games at Richmond, but can depend on a team for the opening game here Thursday that will be the peer of any team in the League. Several top notchers were signed by wire last night.

The management of the Paris club had lease of the long distance phones last night and at a late hour signed Pat Downing the old leaguer, who will catch the game in Richmond today. Everybody knows Pat.

A Unique Text.

Rev. R. Quarles, the well known colored divine of this city, preached to a crowded house at his new charge, The Russell Cave Baptist church, Sunday night, from the subject, "Hadden a Negro to Enter Heaven for Twenty Years." He informs us that he referred to the religions of all the different races of people upon the globe, closing his sermon with the negro race, showing that because there hadn't been a negro to enter heaven in twenty years was because they were changed to saints just before entering into that blessed abode.

Another Terrific Storm.

Paris and Bourbon county was visited on Thursday night with another terrific wind storm, accompanied by heavy rain, thunder and lightning, which raged from about 11 o'clock through the remainder of the night. The waters in a short space of time raised out of the banks of Houston and Stoner creeks not giving the people who lived close to these streams in the low places any warning whatever. Much damage throughout the entire county has been reported from those in the wake of the gale. Buildings were blown down and unroofed, trees uprooted, fences knocked down and telephone and telegraph wires put out of commission. Stoner and Houston were higher than at any time since 1884. Houston creek was a whirling flood, crossing the pike at the Langston bridge near town, at the bridge on Georgetown pike, and the bridge on Houston Avenue, while Stoner was up into the Paris Milling Company's plant causing them to move large amount of flour.

The new baseball park in White Addition was completely covered by water, part of the big new fence being carried away.

On the farm near town, rented by Mr. Andy Reiff, a big barn was blown over, killing a cow and four calves and wrecking the barn.

The corn crib of Frank Buchanan at Hutchison blew over and killed a pair of two-year-old mules that Mr. Buchanan had just refused $295 for.

Paris seems to have been gen throughout the country. More than a hundred lives are reported lost. The Southern States being the heaviest sufferers both in the number of killed and injured and in the amount of property destroyed. In Tennessee alone, thirty-six persons were killed with complete reports not yet obtainable. The storm was remarkable for its intensity and the wide area covered. Hundreds of buildings were destroyed and the loss in cattle killed, trees blown down and buildings laid waste will amount into the millions of dollars. The high waters are receding slowly.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wilder and little son, Master Ussery Wilder, and their niece, Miss Mattie Wilder, of Birmingham, Ala., will leave Saturday for a visit to Louisville, French Lick and Martinsville.

—Mr. C. R. James, the popular clothier, was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington, last night on the 10:30 train, where he was operated on by Dr. Waller Bullock for appendicitis. He was accompanied to Lexington by his wife and Dr. W. C. Ussery.

—Prof. J. Ray Honey, of Spurrier, Hardin county, is here at the bedside of his father, Mr. Jos. P. Honey, who remains severely ill. Prof. Honey is now conducting a large mercantile business at Spurrier. He notes great improvement in Paris since leaving it a number of years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Adcock, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. James, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hagyard, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harris and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Hibler and Mr. D. Y. L. Farley were among those from Paris who attended the dedication of the $75,000 Christian church at Winchester Sunday. Elder R. M. Raines, of Cincinnati, preached the dedicatory sermon and canceled the remaining debt on church, by raising $29,000 at the two services Sunday.

Uneeda Biscuit Day.

Saturday was Uneeda Biscuit tag day in Paris and Lexington, and Mr. Chas. Clark, the representative of the National Biscuit Company for Central Kentucky, was a busy man, and from the number of tags seen upon our streets showed that he did not fail to tag anybody in this section of the woods. Mr. Clark makes his home in Paris and is one of the most popular salesmen that travels Kentucky, and the National Biscuit Company can depend upon being well represented in every town that Mr. Clark visits.

Buzzard With Bell.

While crossing the farm of L. A. Soper, near Little Rock, a few days ago, R. P. Hopkins and T. E. Patton were startled by the muffled report of a bell which appeared to come from a thicket nearby. Preparing to defend themselves, both men secured clubs, when Mr. Hopkins glanced skyward and observed a buzzard sailing near mother earth, to which was attached a small bell. The buzzard disappeared in a northerly direction and it is believed is the same bird captured at East Union one year ago to which a bell was attached and then liberated.

May Court Day.

There was a small crowd in town yesterday and little trading indulged in. There were not over twenty mules on the market, most of them bringing fair prices, every one sold was in neighborhood of $200 mark.

Mr. Thomas McClintock, of Millersburg, sold three mules for $600. Mr. W. C. McClintock, of Paris, sold five head for $1,250. Mr. Henry Caywood, of North Middletown, sold to Ira G. Sharp, of Illinois, a good saddle gelding for $350. W. H. Whaley purchased two mules and two horses, J. N. Mason shipped two loads of hogs to Cincinnati market for which he paid from 6-14 to 6-12 cents.

Auctioneer Geo. D. Speakes reports quite a number of plug horses changing hands from $25 to $110.50. A. B. Setters bought from Caywood & Hamilton a mare for $175.

Walter Clark sold a pair of mules to Mr. Squires for $440, and a horse for $160.

There were about 100 cattle on the market at Murphy's pen. All being sold at from 4-12 to 4-3-4 cents.

Fruitful Jersey.
A contributor assures us that the following is a faithful and accurate report of an entirely sober speech recently heard in a certain pleasant and famous city of New Jersey. "Hey, there, boy! Take this basket of apples up to Mr. Peare, corner of Peach and Plum streets. And be quick about it, too!"—Harper's Weekly.

Why People Disappoint.
The reason why men and women are mysterious to us, and prove disappointing, is that we will read them from our own books, just as we are perplexed by reading ourselves from theirs.—George Meredith.

CORSETTE

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduso No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 30. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 772 for large short women, is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 30. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subsiding" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

It Couldn't Be Done.
An individual with considerably more lung power than was agreeable to his hearers was hawking fish one morning in a northern town.
"Fine fresh herrin'! Power a penny!" he roared in a fashion that made the windows rattle.
A woman approached the barrow and eyed the fish with a certain amount of suspicion, which, considering the circumstances, was not unnatural.
"Are they fresh?" she demanded, with a suspicious sniff.
"They're fower a penny, mum," was the guarded reply.
"Yes," responded the other, with a touch of sarcasm. "I think I 'eard yer say so. But are they fresh?"
"For aught I know, mum, they is."
"When wor they cotched?"
This was too much, and, adopting the sarcastic style of his questioner, the hawker replied:
"Can't say for sartain, mum. I applied for the birth an' death stificate of every fish on the barrow, but at fower a penny it simply couldn't be done!"
"Ere y' are! Fower a penny, her-in!"—London Answers.

What Heaven Is.

The wife of a minister was entertaining some friends the other day when one of the visitors asked the dominie's wife if she had ever painted a mental picture of heaven. She said that she had not. Moreover, she declared, she had not thought it necessary to do so.

"Do you mean to say," inquired one of the visitors, with a show of surprise, "that you have listened to your husband's sermons without feeling that you know what heaven is like?"

"I mean to say that I have not given the matter much thought. When my husband dies I want to go wherever he goes. That will be heaven enough for me," announced the clergyman's wife.

One of the women told her husband that night what the minister's wife said, and the brute remarked:
"That's what I call love that never grows cold."

Grammar and the Lord's Prayer.

A party of gentlemen were discussing literary subjects when one asked another to point out the grammatical blunder in the Lord's Prayer. Half a dozen tried. Some thought it lay in the words "which art in heaven;" others placed it elsewhere, but not one detected it in the expression, "For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory." To be perfectly correct the word "is" should be "are," but people have used it in the present form so long that they never think of regarding it as a blunder. There are teachers who say such an expression is right because it sounds right, but reverse it and say, "The kingdom, the power and the glory is thine," and the fault is soon perceived.

Text from Brother Dickey.

"It's one thing ter talk 'bout havin' de patience er Job, an' another ter suffer de misery dat made Job howl fer a hurricane ter blow him ter nuthin'!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Its the greatest healer on earth. Sold by Oberdorfer, the druggist.

How Tiny Creatures Live.
The microscope has opened to the eye of man a wonderful world of tiny creatures. Careful watching has disclosed the fact that bits of life, so small the naked eye cannot detect them, suffer pain and experience pleasure in a manner as real as an elephant. In this realm of smallness there is a struggle for existence, the same as with men.

New York's Consumption of Tea.
New Yorkers drink tea as well as other things, and it is estimated that one pound of the herb is consumed by each inhabitant yearly.

Westernizing Japan.
The time will certainly be far off when, if ever, wheat or flour will become the principal material of diet (in Japan); nevertheless it is really wonderful how quickly and how largely we are learning the use of flour in preparing our eatables.—Japan Times, Tokyo.

Feminine Inconsistency.
The woman who resents her husband working overtime lest she be deprived of a pleasure is the sort that in later years decries his poverty in contemptuous tones.—Chicago Record-Herald.

To Cure Love Madness.

Dr. Derillon of Paris says that love is simply a "fixed affective idea," and the symptoms are an increased sensitiveness of the left side, hand, wrist and left temple. To cure it, if one has to do is to get up a counter irritation, give the boy or girl physical exercises that will bring into play the muscles of the right side, and, behold, the madness is cured.
